William Carey

Born to a weaver in Paulerspury, England, in 1761, William Carey left his humble beginnings, grew up to be a shoemaker and followed God's call to the ministry in 1786.

He began to feel God leading him to the mission field and, after struggles with other clergy who were non-mission-minded, he wrote his famous "Enquiry into the Obligations of the Christians to Use Means for the Conversion of the Heathen" which led the way to the founding of the Baptist Missionary Society on October 2, 1792.

The next year, Carey followed God's persistent call to India. His wife and children accompanied him rather reluctantly and endured great hardship with him. They saw no convert among the Indian people for seven years.

For those seven years, Carey worked with purple dyes that come from indigo. This provided Carey and his family with some income during difficult times.

During his time in India, God enabled Carey to translate the Bible into 40 languages; begin a college in Serampore, India, on July 15, 1818; see people come to know Christ and see a once closed country open its borders to missionaries.

William Carey College began as Mississippi Woman's College in 1911. They were known as "The School with a Mission."

The college was forced to shut down in 1940 because of the Depression, but opened its doors to house Army officers from Camp Shelby. These officers were housed in Johnson and Ross halls and held some administration rooms in Tatum Court. Mississippi Woman's College re-opened in 1946.

The Mississippi Baptist Convention voted to make the college coeducational in 1953.

The following year, the board of trustees selected a new name. Since William Carey is known as the "Father of Modern Missions," naming the mission-minded college after him seemed appropriate.

"They wanted to find a name with international recognition. One that underscored the mission thrust of the college. In addition, it would call attention to the high goal of William Carey which they could emulate, especially his not giving up in the face of a host of unavoidable obstacles. And that's how we want our students to be," Dr. Milton Wheeler, professor of history, said.

The Hattiesburg campus branched out in 1968 to join forces with the Mather School of Nursing in New Orleans, La., and followed less than a decade later in 1976 by buying the Gulf Coast Military Academy's campus in Gulfport.

William Carey's marks are seen around Hattiesburg's campus in several departments and organizations. The most common reminder of the great missionary is his famous statement, "Expect great things from God; attempt great things for God."

The Cobbler, the student-led newspaper, got that name from Carey's occupation. Shoemakers were also known as cobblers.

The Serampore Players received its name from Carey's college in India.

The student literary publication is called the Indigo, for the plant Carey worked with during his time in India.

While the name "Crusader" has its historical roots with the Crusades, it also has a more spiritual meaning.

"[William Carey] was a Crusader for Christ who advanced the gospel into the dark parts of Asia," Wheeler said.

This led the school's mascot to be a Crusader and the yearbook to be called by the same name. Students of William Carey College are expected to be Crusaders for Christ as William Carey, the man, did.

Spring Trimester 2003

Remember When... ♦ ♦ ♦

Clouds, rain and a cool breeze greeted the William Carey College men and women's soccer teams and their 24-foot Ryder moving truck as they hauled their belongings from the coast campus to their new home on the Hattiesburg campus. The soccer players came with many different emotions about the move.

Luke Hamilton, junior accounting major, said, "I am a little nervous about coming to Hattiesburg, but I think there will be good changes in our college life because there are more things to be involved in."

The main feeling all the soccer players shared was uncertainty.

Kirk Williams, sophomore marketing major, said, "I guess I am a little nervous because of fear of the unknown."

Dr. James Harrison, director of student services for the coast campus, came to help the soccer teams move in.

"We have mixed feelings about the move. We realize there are more opportunities in Hattiesburg, but we are sad to see them go," Harrison said.

While helping unload some luggage Mairead McLaughlin, sophomore physical education major, said she wasn't happy about moving to Hattiesburg but was hoping the following months would help. Now that the rainy move-in day has passed and some time has passed, the soccer players are beginning to enjoy their new home.

McLaughlin said, "I miss living in the apartments, but the social life is better here. The classes are a little harder as well."

Many of the soccer players said they received a warm welcome. As part of this welcome the SGA had a special pizza party for the soccer teams.

Emilia Johansson, sophomore psychology major, said all the people here made her feel very welcome.

Despite the unsettling move both soccer teams are excited about playing on the Hattiesburg campus.

Brynn Brewington, freshman physical therapy major, said she was looking forward to seeing more people and spirit at their games.

MR. & MISS WCC

Nathan Scott Eldridge graduated from Tri-County Academy and began his career at William Carey College in 1999. His parents are Ricky Eldridge and Sara Townsend.

Nathan majored in history and minored in biblical languages. He served as a RA, as CRV president and as SGA secretary and elections commissioner. He also participated in Sigma Psi Nu, the men's fraternity, and Omicron Delta Kappa, a leadership society.

During his years at Carey, Nathan played intramural football, basketball and soccer. He received the honors of Outstanding Student Leader and senior class beau.

While in Hattiesburg, Nathan attended Woodland Presbyterian Church where he taught Sunday school. He also preached at several churches as a result of his position as CRV president. He attended Reformed University Fellowship at USM.

Nathan said of his education at Carey, "The more I learned, the more I realized I had a lot to learn."

Megan Alane Rogillio Eldridge, daughter of Timmy Rogillio and wife of Nathan Eldridge, graduated from Lawrence County High. She attended Copiah-Lincoln Community College for two years before coming to William Carey her junior year.

While at Co-Lin, Megan maintained a tennis scholarship by being active on the team and competing at nationals.

Megan majored in psychology and minored in gerontology. She served as a RA and as president of Carey Connection.

She attended Woodland Presbyterian Church in Hattiesburg and Reformed University Fellowship at USM.

"The people who I met were my greatest memory [of Carey]," Megan said.

Megan said of her education, "What we expect from ourselves is not always what God expects from us. A good education is not just based on what you've learned from your books, but on how you've faced your challenges."

PREVIEW WEEKEND

Choosing a college is a big step. Carey takes pride in helping students make that difficult decision. Preview Weekend is just what the title says, it is a time for high school and transfer students to come and preview the college. The prospective students are given the opportunity to experience a taste of Carey food, dorm life and student life. Prospective students are invited to spend the night in a dorm. This gives them a glimpse of campus life and an opportunity to ask current students any questions they may have.

The weekend provides a way for students to overcome many apprehensions about college life. Current students who participate play a huge role in a person's decision to attend WCC. The atmosphere they create on campus is very influential. A large part of choosing a college is based on a friendly and welcoming environment.

Alissa King, associate director of admissions, said, "There is a combination of factors that influence the student's decision to come. The thing that sets Carey apart from other schools is the caring environment. You can't promote that from a brochure; therefore, the campus visit is crucial. We try to help students experience every facet of Carey by meeting current students, faculty and the admissions staff."

I want to be your hands...

Summer missionaries and camp staffers play a vital role in outreach ministry. Choosing to give up a summer at home, these students traveled near and far to spread the good news and minister to those in need. Isaiah 52:7 says, "How beautiful on the mountain are the feet of those who bring good news." That is certainly true of these students.

This summer was truly amazing. I served on a traveling revival team in the Northwest and was able to come in contact with hundreds of people. God burdened my heart for the people in the Northwest; they have such a need for people to tell them about Christ. We in the South seem to be so well-rounded with our general head knowledge of the Bible while the majority of people in the Northwest have no idea what words like "sin" or "salvation" mean. I plan to return to the Northwest after graduation to continue working with these precious people who need and deserve to experience the love of Jesus Christ.

—Tiffany Standrod

I worked at Camp Garaway in Clinton this summer. Camp Garaway is a GA camp for girls and houses 250 girls a week. There are 18 cabins each holding 14 girls. One thing that really blew me away this summer is how little girls can act more mature in their faith than most adults. I went to camp to teach and to lead, and I ended up being taught more by the little girls.

I would like to share a prayer that one of my little girls prayed this summer. "God, I know that you'll always take care of me because you loved me enough to die for me. Sometimes I don't think I'm a very good child of yours, but I'll try all the time to be what you want me to be. I love you, Jesus. Amen."

You may say that children can have that type of genuine faith because they can't know the pain and problems of life the way a grown up does; when, actually, the average eight-year-old has a better grip on reality than many adults because of what the average eight-year-old has to deal with at home. If they can follow Christ with that type of faith amidst things that no child should ever have to go through, then so can we all.

—Vickie Hall

I want to be your feet...

Serving in Indonesia was the greatest experience of my life. From eating fish eyes and walking in the jungle to seeing volcanoes and gigantic bugs. I learned so much about God and how He works in the lives of people so different from me. It is truly amazing to see how He could use someone like me to change lives.

—Bobbi Borne-Smith

Seeing God's hand at work in Romania was a life-changing experience. I learned so much in my two months there. I learned God can use anything for His glory, even thunderstorms. God used a thunderstorm to bring people into a church. Those people who came would not normally have walked into the church but, through God's grace, they did.

—Lacey Walters

Lord, Here am I...

I served in Camiguin Island of the Philippines as a part of a backpacking team. We ministered with a Southern Baptist Church of the area doing house-to-house evangelism in the nine barangays of Sagay. During our spare time, we explored the volcanoes and waterfalls of the island.

—Rachel Doyle

I spent the summer surrounded by God's beauty at Camp Hopewell in Oxford. As an employee of Camp Hopewell, I served as program director of Archery and Outdoor Living Skills. I spent my days leading archery and nature hikes which eventually led to a huge "mud fight" after a creek walk. As the day progressed into the evening, I would sometimes lead worship. One of my favorite services was our closing worship service, which was held at "The Point." I chose our last service as my favorite because, as a team, we reflected upon our experiences and thanked God for leading us to serve at Hopewell. Our closing service was bittersweet.

—Jana Chapman

Working at Waukaway taught me an amazing amount about ministry, missions and myself. Although things were tough mentally, spiritually and physically, I believe that God used all those things to prepare me for the future. I have learned a tremendous amount of what it really means to be a servant and be used for God's glory. My prayer for the summer was that God would use my availability to pour Himself out onto everyone around me. I know those prayers were answered. The seeds that were planted may never be seen my eyes, yet the fruit is there and God used me to start something greater than myself. He has definitely answered my prayer which was the same as Isaiah, "Here I am, send me," Isaiah 6:8.

—Samantha Roberts

Serving as a cabin leader at Camp Garaywa was a wonderful opportunity for me. I had the chance to meet wonderful Christian girls and grow because of their influence; the influence I had because of my position was also remarkable and it blew my mind away how much the campers looked up to us as leaders. Nothing humbled me more this summer than meeting a child who desperately needed my love and encouragement, but knowing the only way I could give them what they needed was by introducing them to the Savior, the Creator and the Father - only by showing those girls the power of God could I love them as they needed me to.

—Emily Wade

While serving in the Coalfields Southern Baptist Association of West Virginia, God taught me a lot. I traveled doing youth camps, VBS and also helped flood victims. God showed me that being a Christian is not only about serving, but also about being happy about the Jesus you serve.

—Jill Albritton

Serving in the Sequoia Baptist Association was an incredible and life-changing experience. I traveled to churches helping with VBS, Backyard Bible Clubs and a pre-teen camp. God taught me flexibility and patience while helping build his kingdom.

—Hope Henderson

Send Me.

Keeping our hearts and minds

Summer missions is a great way to spend your summer serving God and others while sharing the good news of what Jesus has done for you. Serving at Mission Arlington gave me the opportunity to meet people where they are and to meet their physical and spiritual needs. Being a summer missionary has allowed me to make life-long memories and has given me a desire to continue God's work.

—Kayla Smith

Gulfshore Baptist Assembly is owned and operated by the Mississippi Baptist Convention Board and is supported by gifts to the cooperative program.

on Missions.

Serving God in Klamath Falls and Bend, Ore., was an eye-opening and incredible experience. My partner and I assisted five different churches with vacation Bible schools (English and Spanish), backyard Bible clubs, youth events, Bible studies and other small tasks. God revealed to me that I do not need special skills to be a missionary in the Northwest; I only need a willingness to act upon my burden for lost souls.

—Kelly Dabbs

Centri-Kid has been an amazing part of my life for the past two summers. C-Kid is a camp run by Lifeway for children who have completed grades 3-6.

I worked this past summer as a Bible Study and Track Time leader. The theme for the summer was "Spin Cycle." Children learned how to "Spin Out" good words, thoughts and deeds. My favorite part of the summer was watching children's faces light up as they began to understand how much their Father in heaven loves them. C-kid is held at different locations across the country. My team traveled between Tennessee, Kentucky and Virginia

Belhaven's number 11 was shot down while trying to block Carey's number 44, Jaeson Maravich

Homecoming 2004 provided many golden moments as the institution celebrated 50 years of service under the name William Carey College. Alumni of both WCC and the college's founding name, Mississippi Women's College, enjoyed festivities with current students and faculty. Recognized during the Jan. 22-24 event were members of the Class of '54 who were inducted into the Golden Heritage Circle, an honor given to those who celebrate their 50th anniversary since graduating from the college.

Judge Louis Guirola Jr., U.S. District Judge for the Southern District of Mississippi, received the William Carey College Distinguished Alumnus Award.

Melanie Ward Butler, a partner in the London Forensic Services Practice of Pricewaterhouse Coopers LLP in England, received the WCC Distinguished Young Alumnus of the Year Award.

Activities during the commemorative weekend included a viewing of the movie "Grease" at the Beverly Drive-In, the annual Miss Carey Pageant, a decade reunion fellowship, opening of the "Legacy of Lucille Parker" art exhibit, and various department reunions. Sports enthusiasts enjoyed men's and women's basketball action against Belhaven College. Events concluded with a star-studded "Jubilee" celebration in Dumas L. Smith Auditorium.

Queen

Mr. Nicks, Chancey
Nicks, President
Kennedy and Heather Wells.

Chancey Nicks is a physical education major from Hornbeck, La. Her minor is biology. Chancey received a scholarship to play basketball for four years.

This year, Chancey represented her class as a senior maid on the Homecoming court.

She said, "I felt honored and surprised when I heard I was chosen to be a part of this."

Every year a maid gets to choose her escort. Chancey chose her dad.

She said, "We are best friends and I have never gotten to do something like this before; I wanted to share it with him."

Chancey also added it was the first time she ever got to see her dad dressed in a suit.

She said, "It meant a lot to him when I asked him to escort me."

It made her happy that he was willing to do this since he does not like to be in front of big crowds and he was willing to step out of his comfort zone for her.

Chancey said, "When they called out the Homecoming queen, I was completely shocked when my name was called. It feels like a blessing to be chosen as queen. It felt good to be voted [for] by my peers; it really meant a lot to me."

Chancey was humbled by the whole experience.

She wants to thank everyone who gave her the privilege to be Homecoming queen.

Sixteen talented girls joined together in January, 2013 after a series of practices and rehearsals to perform a program in the 50th year of the 2014 Miss Mary program. They knew this wasn't just any program, it was a program to the best of the school and the world was watching with a crown on their heads and the possibility of representing William Henry College in the Miss Mary competition.

Here she is...

Ashley Anne Henderson of Petal was crowned Miss Carey 2004 during homecoming ceremonies held January 24 on the Hattiesburg campus. Henderson, a freshman music education with vocal concentration major, also received the Entrepreneurial Award for collecting the most advertisement sponsorships.

Henderson, whose platform focuses on the importance of mentoring young children, will represent William Carey College at the Miss Mississippi Pageant in June. If successful, she would then represent the state at the Miss America Pageant in September.

A Dean's List scholar with a 3.7 academic average, Henderson is a member of Petal-Harvey Baptist Church where she participates in the Celebration Choir and College Praise Team. At Petal High School, she was a member of the Mississippi All-State Lion's Band, Soundsations Showchoir and Mississippi All-State Choir Program. She served as Drum Major for the Petal High School Marching Band. She is the daughter of Chuck and Lynette Henderson.

Stephanie Crumbley of Lafayette, Ind. is first runner-up. Stephanie is a vocal performance major who has received several talent and academic scholarships at Carey. She is a member of Carpenter's Wood and has won numerous awards at the National Association of Teachers of Singing competitions, and will appear in the USM/WCC opera production of "Into the Woods" in the spring. She is the daughter of Steven and Dianne McKenzie.

Second runner-up is Jennifer McCumber of Jacksonville, Fla. McCumber is a junior music major with emphasis in both piano and voice. A member of Delta Omicron, she is a National Dean's List Scholar and she has studied classical piano for ten years. She is the daughter of Michael and Lisa McCumber.

Jancsi Ward, a freshman chemistry major from Sartartia, is third runner-up. Ward is a President's List scholar with a 4.0 grade point average. A member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Ward serves as a teacher's assistant at Rowan Elementary School. She is the daughter of James and Susan Ward.

Anna Morris of Ocala, Fla. received the Virginia Scott Spirit of Miss Carey Award. This award was established to honor the former director of the Miss Carey Pageant who produced three Miss Mississippis, all of whom finished in the top five at their respective Miss America pageants. Morris is a junior elementary education major. She was selected Who's Who Among American College Students and has received both the Dean's List and President's List academic recognitions. She is the daughter of Cristy Morris and the late Dennis Morris.

Miss Mississippi 2003 Allison Kellogg, WDAM-TV sports anchor Scott Cody and Hattiesburg Miss Hospitality Melissa Thames co-hosted the pageant. Miss Carey 2003 LaDonna Ferguson of Laurel crowned the new Miss Carey.

MR. & MISS WCC

Matt Fondren, a native of Columbus, will graduate in May with a major in communication and a minor in psychology. He is the assistant manager at the student center and a former SGA justice. He is a former columnist for The Cobbler and former all-American Yahoo pool player. Matt now serves as an intern at Cartersville Baptist Church.

"Last year I couldn't wait to graduate and get out of here, but sometimes when I walk across campus and look around, I realize that I'm going to miss this strange place I've called home for four years," Matt said. "There are many memories that I will take with me from Carey like Jody Richardson dancing at winter formal, Carlos Rodriguez's run-ins with security, Jimmy Buffet Friday, intramural victories and mine and Rocky's constant late night runs to Wendy's.

"I've never been the guy who was a super student or involved in every club and organization (although it seems like I end up helping them anyway), so you'll never convince me that I actually deserved this award, but I consider it a great honor," said Matt.

Sunny Salters, the 2004 Miss WCC and native of Natchez, is an education major and will graduate in May. She is a member of the Omicron Delta Kappa honor society, Alpha Chi honor society and has been a sophomore, junior and senior homecoming maid. She was also elected sophomore class favorite, junior beauty and a senior beauty. Sunny has been on the President's List each trimester.

"I am so thankful for the strong friendships I have established in the four years of being at Carey. The relationships I have made will always be close to my heart," Sunny said.

"I will miss the caring and wonderful faculty, staff and administration. I will miss all of my friends, and my elementary education professors. I will miss walking around campus saying 'Hey' to everyone and being involved in all the different activities of college life" she said.

Dr. Larry Kennedy

In 1793 when William Carey the Missionary left England to take the gospel of Christ to India, he had the equivalent of a sixth grade education. Before his death some 40 years later, he would master Latin, Greek, Hebrew and translate the Bible into 40 different dialects and languages of India. He would start a college, develop a printing press, and lead in numerous social reforms improving the people's lives. Before his death it would be said of William Carey that he had become a scholar, a leader, and a true servant of Jesus Christ.

Several years ago the College re-wrote the school's mission statement to read as follows: The mission of William Carey College is to provide liberal arts and professional education programs within a caring Christian academic community. The individual student is encouraged to develop his or her highest potential in scholarship, leadership, and service. The college collaborates with churches, organizations, and individuals to affirm its Baptist heritage and namesake—William Carey.

This is an appropriate mission statement for a college that magnifies the name, William Carey. Our primary mission is helping students grow in scholarship, leadership, and service.

I often tell new students that it is not the purpose of the College to make them into career missionaries. Only God can do that; however, it is our hope that students during their years at WCC will grow, as did William Carey the missionary, in scholarship, leadership, and service.

William Carey the missionary made a positive difference in the world. The world became a better place because Carey was committed to scholarship, leadership, and Christian values. Faculty at WCC are committed to helping students to grow in these three virtues, and we know that such growth will enable each student to make a positive difference in the world.

Sincerely,
Larry Kennedy

WCC graduate class of 2003

The Alumni Association performs many tasks for the college throughout the year. One of the main purposes of the Alumni Association is to organize Homecoming events. Other efforts are directed toward increasing awareness of alumni happenings, increasing monetary aid for school funding, and keeping alumni informed. The alumni magazine also keeps 15,000-16,000 alumni in touch with the college. The Alumni Association assists President Kennedy and the college leadership in the future development of William Carey College.

The Baptist Student Union consists of every student interested in participating in its activities and is dedicated to bringing all students the vital connection between an intellectual challenge and a spiritual inspiration. It seeks to do this by sponsoring student religious activities and encouraging students to take an active and personal part in its program.

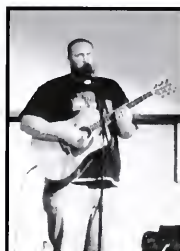

Making decisions can be exhausting, so the leadership team unanimously votes to take a quick nap.

Closing

Dedication

Dr. and Mrs. Milton Wheeler: decades of service to William Carey College and more to come

Dr. Milton Wheeler and Mrs. Donna Wheeler have both made a huge impact on the campus of William Carey College. Their love and dedication to this school and to each other have been an inspiration to many.

Dr. Wheeler is known by students for his knowledge and wisdom. When students on campus were asked about their favorite teacher, I heard a resounding, Dr. Wheeler. From the class room setting, office visits, trips around the world, and wrestling matches, students and faculty alike have many life-long memories of Dr. Wheeler's never-say-die spirit.

On the other hand, I never heard of Mrs. Donna Wheeler participating in any wrestling matches, but I did hear of the wonderful things she has done for the college. Mrs. Wheeler has served as the alumni director since 1989. With more than 39 years she has served on campus in other positions such as administrative assistant to the president. Mrs. Wheeler diligently keeps the Carey family connected. If Carey alumni need something, they turn to Mrs. Wheeler. She takes pride in her work because she is proud of William Carey College.

My words here do not complete the story nor do the quotes on the following page. The lessons we all have learned from the Wheelers do not stop here. So much has been learned from this couple, and their genuine love and passion for WCC will be passed on from the Wheelers to future teachers, ministers, corporate executives, and so on. People's lives all around Carey have been impacted and enriched by the Wheeler's love and dedication.

--Lacey Walters

Dr. and Mrs. Milton Wheeler

"Dr. Wheeler has been a constant encouragement and father-figure for me while I have been at William Carey College."

-Tony Rancatore
Student

"Visiting Dr. and Mrs. Wheeler's home was like taking a tour of the world all in one place. It's always fun to visit. They are two of the nicest people I know."

-Jason Pool
Student

"Not only has Dr. Wheeler been one of the greatest teachers of my life, but also one of the greatest men that I have ever met. He is a wonderful person and friend."

-Logan Abbott
Student

"For nearly four decades Donna Wheeler's life has evolved around this college and its Hattiesburg campus. From her student days until today, she has served selflessly in a variety of positions. Surely, we can say about her contributions to WCC, 'Well done, thy good and faithful servant.'"

-Barbara Hamilton
Executive Assistant to the President and Grant Writer

"From my first day forward, Dr. and Mrs. Wheeler have served as an unofficial welcoming committee. Each has kindly provided valuable insight into the WCC community. Dr. Wheeler serves as our 'coast circulation director,' ensuring the Cobbler is delivered after each press run. Mrs. Wheeler is an invaluable source for our publications." What treasures!

-Debbie Montgomery
Journalism and PR Professor

"Donna Wheeler's deep passion for Carey drives her to be involved in all aspects of improving our college. She is always willing to go the next mile for William Carey College, no matter what the cost. While bridging the past with the present, she diligently works to ensure that our college's best days are ahead."

-Pam Cruse

"Something amazing about Dr. Wheeler is the fact that he has not only knowledge about a subject, he has not only read about it, but he has more than likely been to the location of the event. This perspective on whatever notable lecture he is delivering greatly contributes to the student's mind's eye and ability to retain. In his class I have not only learned facts, but also lessons about life. Someone once said that with the passing of an individual comes the closure of a library. Dr. Milton Wheeler is the source of several libraries. I am thankful that I have the opportunity to spend time with him and browse. No one should leave William Carey without getting to know this man."

-John Blackmon
Student

"It is most fitting that this honor goes to Milton and Donna Wheeler. I don't think there are two more loyal cheerleaders for Carey. Donna has this uncanny ability to remember alumni by name and often their family members as well. She and Dr. Wheeler are the walking, talking history of this college and I don't think that they can be respected and appreciated enough for their many contributions."

-Jeanna Graves
Administrative Assistant for
Public Relations

"When I am asked to think of a faculty or staff member at William Carey, I automatically think of two people. Dr. and Mrs. Milton Wheeler are a large part of what makes this school the great institution it is. Mrs. Donna Wheeler does so much work behind the scenes and rarely gets the credit she deserves. She is an inspiration in so many ways as a hard worker with a sweet spirit and as a supportive wife. Dr. Wheeler is one of the best teachers I have ever had for more than his classroom lectures. He is the only teacher I have ever known who both cried for me and prayed with me. The Wheelers' Christian example and encouragement will be two of the main things I will take with me after I graduate. Thank you, Dr. and Mrs. Wheeler, for all you have done."

-Joy Stodghill
Student

"Dr. Milton Wheeler is one of the most intelligent professors and finest Christians I know. He has truly inspired me to be a better student, a better Christian, and a better man."

-Brandon Dillon
Admissions Counselor

"I can't think of any people more dedicated to William Carey College than Donna and Milton Wheeler. They both love the college and are willing to go the extra mile to help someone. Their enthusiasm shows in all areas in which they participate."

-Diane Taylor
Administrative Assistant for Development and External Relations

Editor's Notes

Being a transfer junior at Carey, I never dreamed I would be sitting here today writing the editor's notes for the yearbook. I came here expecting to be a part of a staff, but in the end, was given the opportunity to step up and take on this role. This year as editor has been a learning experience for me. It has been stressful, exhausting and seemingly endless, but on a more larger scale, it has been fun, exciting, and I can't believe the end is here. God used this time to stretch me and teach me. I am thankful that through this position, I learned more about the students, faculty, staff, administration, and alumni who all love Carey so much. It has made my Carey experience more memorable.

To the Crusader yearbook staff and advisors:

I want to thank each of you for all of your hard work. Even though we missed deadlines and made mistakes, your efforts are greatly appreciated. Joy Stodghill, Liz Green, Kattie Gardner and Dexter Akins, thank you for your for sticking with the job until the end. You did a fabulous job. Anthony Williams, staff photographer, thank for your many fabulous pictures. You, too, did a great job. Ms. Jahn Tuten, I want to thank you so much for just listening to me on those stressful days and for being such an amazing encourager. Ms. Debbi Montgomery, you are wonderful. I appreciate all that you have done for the Crusader this year. Thanks to caring for us and teaching us. You all have made this year very special and it has been a blessing getting to know each of you.

It is important to close this year with a big THANK YOU. I would like to thank the faculty, staff, administration and students that made this book possible. Your contributions allowed us to conserve a part of the history of this year. Yearbooks are not about today or tomorrow. They are history books that decades from now will allow each person to recall his or her memories of their days at William Carey College. Memories of classes, teachers, friends, dorm life, and all the other events that make college life special.

Love in Christ Jesus,
Lacey Ellen Walters

Colophon

The 49th volume of the William Carey College yearbook, The Crusader, was created by the Crusader yearbook staff and friends and published by Walsworth Publishing Company of Marceline, Mo. 64658.

This year's theme, "For Such a Time as This," was chosen because of God's purpose and plan for our lives.

The cover is 120 point binder board with classic black cover material. The artwork is blind embossed. 10# endsheet stock was chosen and printed in black ink.

The press run consisted 275 copies of the Crusader's 192 pages. A variety of fonts were used, all using AWPC fonts. Pages are printed on 80# gloss enamel paper stock. All pages are prepared on Quark.

Student and Faculty/Staff portraits were taken by the Crusader staff using Nikon digital cameras. All other pictures were taken by Crusader staff members, Cobbler staff members, faculty/staff, and photography students.

Our Walsworth sales representative is Ken Tally of Tally Student Services.

The book was produced under the guidance of editor, Lacey Walters and work study, Joy Stodghill.

The staff is under the direction of instructor Debbie Montgomery.

Closing Thoughts

Yearbook staffs face many decisions throughout the year. One of the first tasks they undertake is determining their inspiration, foundation, and central focus for the year. This becomes the theme of the yearbook.

This year's theme, "For Such a Time as This," comes from Esther 4:14. "For if you remain completely silent at this time, relief and deliverance will arise for the Jews from another place, but you and your father's house will perish. Yet who knows whether you have come to the kingdom for such a time as this." Esther was a Jewess chosen as queen of Persia during a time of Jewish persecution. No doubt she wondered why she was taken to the palace away from all she knew and the people she loved. Her cousin, Mordecai, wisely told her she was there for a reason and God's will would be done whether he used her as part of that plan or not.

Students, faculty, and staff come to William Carey from all over the world. The reasons vary, but all are here for such a time as this. Each person who makes up the school and the faces on these pages come to a time when they wonder why they are here. While they may not find the answer to this, they can know that their placement is all part of God's plan for such a time as this.

Reindeer imposter Casey Williams helps ring in the Christmas season at William Carey by acting like most deer and running in front of oncoming traffic in front of the BSU. Casey's plan was to slow down traffic before their cars hit the new speed reducers.
